

Two-Day Demonstration Outline

- "First Cut" Evaluate wood log, chain saw the grain to the best use
- Lathe tune up
- Green wood handling, Shrinkage, Pith, Turning, Finishing, Drying
- Turn natural edge bowl, Mounting without chucks, Keep it simple methods
- Dynamics involved to prevent catches
- Swept back "Ellsworth grind" uses, roughing cuts, Outside cuts, Inside cuts, Sheering cuts, Slicing cuts, Sheer scraping cuts, all with the same bowl gouge
- Grinding (a must see) for safe and fun turning, Freehand and jig usage
- Slide show with creativity talk
- Instant gallery critique, Form and Finishes
- Reverse chucking and bottom applications
- Turn "Seed Pot," two piece hollow form with glue joint using bowl gouge and talk about similar technique for lidded boxes, again with no chucks
- Dynamics of hollow form turning, preventing catches, and 90 degree rule
- Turn a hollow form using Jamieson stabilizing handle for the Stewart type tools Hollow forms the EASY and FUN way.
- Design and use of laser light hollow form measuring device
- Show how I do my multi-axis Torso hollow forms